RECOGNITIONS

JANUARY 2024

Britni Smith

Britni is very caring and will drop whatever she is doing and help the people we serve and also will help the staff. She has been great since she started here at Shoots and we are lucky to have her. Britni always keeps the people we serve busy while they are at the Day Program. They call her name during the day so they can talk to her or for her to help them with something.

Sarah Medlin

Sarah has been an open leader and kind person to be able to work with on a daily basis. She facilitates openness, friendly, and fun environment to work in. She is hard working, smart, kind person that has made work less like work and more like a place to come and be safe, listened to and helped. No matter the situation she will take the time to help, listen, or just give suggestions. Thank you for having an open mind and caring way in which you chose to lead.

Lydia Mino

Lydia is an amazing human. Every time I am in the coffee shop she is blowing me away with her service skills and compassion for our individuals. She is a bright light in some very dark days. Her light shines so bright and I love seeing her engage with clients and the general public. This is kind, sweet, and naturally patient. Even when she comes to the DP here at the plaza the clients flock to her. She is a hidden treasure for sure. Her energy is infectious and calming. Thank you, Lydia for all you do.

Kip Chamberlin

Kip has grown so much since I have started here at the Plaza. Kip has come out of his shell and started showing the funny, kindness, and dedication he truly has. He makes such a difference every day when he is here. He is a great listener and always ready and willing to help any of us in our time of need. He is dedicated to our individuals. He is inspiring. Thank you for all you do.

Andrea Jones

Andrea is a hardworking, supportive team lead and support system for our team here at the Plaza. She works hard to make sure that our individuals are going on outings no less than 3 times a week. She is engaging, kind, and thoughtful with us co-workers as well as all our individuals here. Andrea creates an environment where we all feel loved and cared for. Thank you so much for all you do.

Catherine Hall

Catherine does a great job here. She is so caring and understanding. She likes to help out whenever she can. Catherine does a great job with vocational and has adjusted well to the new lesson plans. She comes up with such great ideas to teach and have fun at the same time. She has been a great addition to the team.

Maria Grove

Maria has such great client care. She always makes sure they are good and never need a thing. She is a great worker and steps in whenever she can to help. She is a great addition to our team.

Jodi Taylor

Jodi is a great and kind person, and we are lucky to have her here with us. She is always so kind and calm and all the individuals here like her so much. Jodi has been a great addition to our team.

Karly Prater

There has been a lot of challenges at the group home recently, and despite all that has been going on, Karly continues to remain person-centered and provide the best care for the ladies! At a recent meeting, a family had nothing but positive things to say about the care and quality of life that their daughter has at the room. I know it can be overwhelming, but Karly, YOU'VE GOT THIS GIRL!!!

Rashard Daviston

Rashard has been working with one of our group home individuals, and the changes we have seen not just in behavior, but overall happiness is amazing!

Alicia Ostrom

Alicia has been a great asset to the medical team. She goes above and beyond the call of duty when it comes to taking care of the clients and ensuring they have what they need medically. The clients always have a great big smile when they see her coming to see them. They know with Alicia, they have someone in their corner. Thank you for all you do Alicia. It is recognized and appreciated.
