Rocio Ortiz

I would like to recognize this staff for all the extra things she does for our clients. She isn't my direct staff, but does work at one of my houses. She is reliable and picks up additional shifts. She is my go-to staff to run outings, for one of my protected clients with extenuating circumstances that can't just be trusted to anyone. She is aware of their story and is careful and selective in where and when they meet with family. She has a great working relationship with all her clients and does literally anything asked of her....

---

Raymon Neal

Monna has been my backbone here when I feel like I need someone! She is great with the clients. We can definitely tell when she is here by all the laughing from the clients! She is always willing to help when needed.
